

HENRI BOURGEOIS

ES-56

SANCERRE BLANC FLINT

FORMERLY "LA BOURGEOISE"

An incisive white Sancerre, with a strong character and multiple aromatic nuances, between gunflint and a bouquet of spices. A flinty wine by excellence.

VITICULTURE & TERROIR

Old Sauvignon Blanc vines grown on a rich terroir of flintstones of Sancerre (precisely in the village of Saint-Satur). This terroir was formed during the Eocene period, 56 million years ago.

The name of this cuvée "ES-56" stands for Eocene Flint 56 million years ago.

IN ORGANIC CONVERSION.

WINEMAKING

Alcoholic fermentation partly in temperature-controlled stainless-steel vats and partly in Tronçais oak barrels.

Aged on fine lees for 12 months, with regular stirring of the lees for 7 to 8 months.

After bottling, the wine rests in our cellars for several months before being sold.

TASTING

Best served at: 12-14°C (54-57°F)

Cellaring potential: 6 to 8 years

Eye: Golden, shiny

Nose: Flint and spices

Palate: Remarkably well-balanced, with unequalled finesse and concentration

The "ES-56" white Sancerre offers incomparable balance and concentration. Its nose, with notes of gunflint and spices, is also reminiscent of Sauvignon flower and its sap. A proud, intense cuvée that will reveal all its elegance and finesse over the years.

PAIRING

ES-56 white Sancerre offers elegance and freshness that will match perfectly with white meats and poultry.
