

Where terroir and grapes merge into a unique wine that offers a crisp freshness and a long-lasting exotic palate. A tour de force of Sauvignon.

SANCERRE BLANC « Jadis »

TERROIR: Kimmeridgian marls

BEST SERVED AT: 11-13°C (51-55°F)

AGEING POTENTIAL: 8-10 years

VITICULTURE & TERROIR

- The Kimmeridgian marls terroir concentrates fossils of comma-shaped oysters (ostrea virgula) on the renowned slopes of Chavignol
- Purposely low yields, use of organic fertilisers only, grassing between the rows

WINEMAKING

- 2 days of natural clarification in vats after gentle pressing of the grapes
- Alcoholic fermentation partly in thermoregulated stainless steel vats and partly in oak demi-muids (600L)
- Aging for 14 months: the part in vats is stirred until Christmas, the part in barrels twice a week until St Vincent's day (January) then once a week until spring (20% new barrels)
- Resting for 6 to 9 months in vats before bottling
- Racking and bottling are done according to the lunar cycles

PAIRING

To serve with fish and shellfish or white meat. Also pairs perfectly with sweet and sour recipes.

Our gastronomic suggestions:

- Chicken fillets with honey and rosemary, in sauce suprême;
- Char (lake trout) with curry and candied oranges;

TASTING

- Eye Bright green gold
- Nose Exotic fruits, green mango, citrus, honey and hints of menthol
- Palate Powerful, round and harmonious. Particularly long-lasting and surprisingly refreshing with a sharp minerality.

From its luminous green gold shade to its refreshing minerality, « Jadis » is a pure example of how Sauvignon blanc transcends the most amazing terroirs. The Chavignol Kimmeridgian marls provide a charming exotic nose with menthol notes and a powerful, long-lasting palate.
