With over 300 years of winemaking heritage, the Bourgeois Family is based in Chavignol, facing the Sancerre peak and the famous vineyard of La Côte des Monts Damnés.

Domaine Henri Bourgeois wines are recognized around the world for their quality and finesse, and their exceptional expression of the terroirs of Sancerre and Pouilly-Fumé.

Today, Domaine Henri Bourgeois is run by Henri's grandchildren, Arnaud and Lionel, and their cousin Jean-Christophe. The estate's vines are entirely grown organically.

Together, in 1999, they took the bold step of applying their winemaking know-how to new lands, creating Clos Henri, a new organic and biodynamically farmed wine estate in New Zealand's Wairau Valley, thus exploring the revelation of new terroirs...
